

IS YOUR MUSEUM INTERESTED IN HOSTING AN INTERNSHIP?

Does your museum have a project it could use help with? The WIU Museum Studies Graduate Program is looking for museums to host graduate students in hands-on, high-impact learning experiences.

Internships range from 150 to 200 hours per semester and can be in-person, virtual, or hybrid experiences. Paid internships are given priority, although unpaid internships will be considered.

Activities can focus on:

- Education programming and engagement
- Collections management and registrar
- Administration and development
- Visitor services
- Exhibit design and development
- Social media and marketing
- Research
- Any project that is mutually beneficial for your organization and our students
